FOREWORD

Rescission: [Redacted] dated 3 May 1978

1. This handbook describes some of the more widely known public service awards for which Federal employees may compete. The Agency has participated for a number of years in various public service awards programs and has been honored by having some Agency candidates selected as award winners, thus bringing their outstanding careers and achievements into national prominence.

2. Supervisors are urged to review periodically the achievements of employees under their jurisdiction to identify individuals who may be recommended as Agency candidates for the awards described in this handbook. The basic policies and procedures concerning the nomination of Agency employees for public service awards are stated in [Redacted]

Harry E. Fitzwater
Deputy Director
for
